subjoined statement by the said Sub-Division Office will be sold by public auction at the place and on the date mentioned in the undermentioned statement. The sale will commence at 11 A.M. on the date specified, and the village will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognised vrittis, the Deputy Commissioner may, at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the balance of the purchase money may not be paid within 15 days from the day of sale the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase meney paid up, the lands shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed if the defaulter or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges provided such tender be made before the property is knocked down.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner or other authority duly authorised to confirm the sale.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Revenue Commissioner, be placed in immediate possession, and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided that parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Deputy Commissioner within 30 days from the day of sale, and also to appeal to higher authority against his order within the time prescribed by law and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
